Lieutenant Colonel Preston A. Davis (Ret.)

Lieutenant Colonel Preston A. Davis (Ret.), a Distinguished Military Graduate of the West Virginia State College Army ROTC in 1949, was born in Norfolk, Virginia in January, 1925.

Prior to his retirement from the military, his many assignments included being an Artillery Commander and Staff Officer in assignments worldwide; Assistant Professor of Military Science at Morgan State University; Foreign Intelligence Officer in the Foreign Science and Technical Center in the Department of Defense; and Operations Analyst on the staff of Generals Westmoreland and Abrams in Vietnam.

Colonel Davis holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from West Virginia State College; Master's Degree in Executive Management from the U. S. Command and General Staff College; Master's in Administration from George Washington University; and extensive post-graduate work at George Washington University in Public Administration.

His military education includes the Artillery School, Basic and Advanced Courses, and the United States Army Command and General Staff College.

Colonel Davis' military awards and decorations include the Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, Purple Heart, and twenty combat medals.

After a distinguished military career that spanned more than 20 years, Colonel Davis has held the following positions: Vice President for Development at Morgan State University, Senior Management Analyst and the Assistant to the Secretary for Administration in the United States Department of Agriculture.

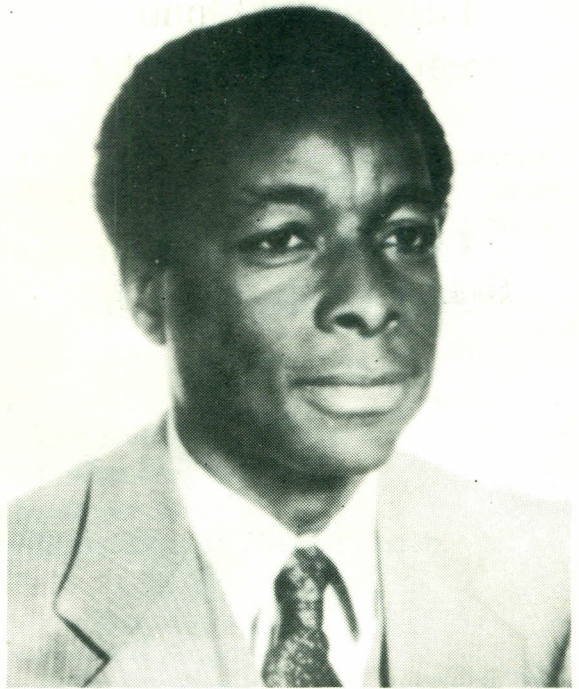

Presently a member of many boards, professional and civic organizations, he has received, on many occasions, special recognition from those organizations for his outstanding service to his community, state, and nation. Highlighting a few of these are his selection as the first Black to hold the position of Lieutenant Governor in the Kiwanis International in the United States; and his selection for listing in Who's Who Among Black Americans, Who's Who in Government, Who's Who Among Black Corporate America, and Who's Who in American Politics.

Colonel Davis is now Director for the Office of Small and Disadvantaged Businesses, United States Department of Agriculture.

Lieutenant Colonel Haywood H. Martin (Ret.)

Colonel Haywood H. Martin, a Distinguished Military Graduate of West Virginia State College Army ROTC in 1953, was born in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia on May 27, 1931.

His military assignments include commanding an Artillery battery of the 3rd Armored Division in Germany; Aviation Officer for the 1st Observation Battalion in Korea; Commanding Officer of Kaiserslautern Support Activity in Germany; Commanding Officer of Pleiku Installation in Vietnam; Deputy Director of the Department of the Army Research Project in Organization Development; Member of the Staff and Faculty of the Artillery School; and Assistant Professor of Military Science, ROTC at West Virginia State College.

His military education includes the Artillery School—Basic, Battery Officer, and Career Course; Army Flight Training—Fixed Wing, Helicopter, Instrument Flight Training; and Nuclear Weapons Employment Course.

Colonel Martin's awards and decorations include National Defense Service Medal with oak leaf cluster, Army Aviator Badge, Vietnam Service Medal, Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, Republic of Vietnam Staff Service Medal 1st Class, Bronze Star Medal, Army Commendation Medal with oak leaf cluster, and Legion of Merit.

Dr. Martin holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business and Mathematics from West Virginia State College, a Master of Arts in Counseling and Guidance from West Virginia University, a Master of Science in Management from the University of Arkansas and a Doctor of Philosophy in Leadership and Human Behavior from United States International University.

Since leaving the service, Dr. Martin has developed an international reputation as a Management Trainer and Organization Development Consultant, working with National Training Laboratory's Institute for Applied Behavioral Sciences, and consulting with government school systems and private industry across the United States.

Colonel Martin is now President of Organization Improvement Systems, Vice President of International Marketing Systems, owner of the Mailbox Station and teacher in the Business Department at Chapman College, San Diego, California.

Lieutenant Colonel
Robert L. Stephens, Jr.

Lieutenant Colonel Robert L. Stephens, Jr., a Distinguished Military Graduate of West Virginia State College Army ROTC in 1962, was born on September 21, 1940 in Welch, West Virginia.

In the course of his many assignments, he has held a variety of command and staff positions including command of a Special Forces "A" Team in Panama and a Rifle Company in Vietnam; Army General Staff and Joint Chiefs of Staff positions in the Pentagon; and Commander of an Infantry Battalion at Fort Lewis, Washington.

Colonel Stephens holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education (English and Social Studies) from West Virginia State College and a Master of Science Degree in Education from Alfred University.

Among his many medals and awards are the Bronze Star Medal With "V" device and two oak leaf clusters, the Purple Heart Medal, the Air Medal with "V" device and two oak leaf clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with oak leaf cluster, the Master Parachutist Badge and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

His military schools include the Infantry School's Basic and Advanced Courses, the Defense Language Institute, and the US Army Command and General Staff College.

Recently selected for promotion to Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel Stephens is attending the National War College at Fort McNair in Washington, D.C.

ALMA MATER
OF WEST VIRGINIA STATE COLLEGE

ERNEST WADE '30

MARTHA SPENCER '31

There is a place we love so dear—
Its name we'll ever praise and revere
'Tis West Virginia State we love—
Just one more step from there is Heav'n above.

REFRAIN:

West Virginia's praise we'll sing—
Lift our voices 'till heavens ring—
As we gaily march along—
We'll sing a song—
For Alma Mater
How we love her
Pride of all our loyal hearts—
From her we will never part—
Thoughts of thee will ne'er be few
Alma Mater we love you.

We'll love her more as days go by,
And send her praises to the sky;
To place her over all the rest,
And keep her e'er the dearest and the best.

Shadowed 'neath a deep blue sky;
Is STATE for whom we'll live and we'll die—
Arise! O men of God and sing;
We're loyal, and to her we'll always cling.
